Hiring The Best of the Best

"If you are a seasoned Human Resources Professional looking to lead an organization to the next level, we would like you to apply for the Department Human Resources Manager position. We are the largest Probation Department in the United States and we are looking for a proven leader to manage our dynamic department of over 6000 employees.

You will have the opportunity to learn and develop your own team that will assist you many areas of oversight including; recruitment, retention, exams, labor relations, risk management and payroll. We need an energetic, seasoned professional in a human resource director capacity, who understands public sector personnel and will help reshape the Probation Department supportive services.

If you want an opportunity to mold your own team and provide support to a transforming Probation Department serving all of Los Angeles County, apply with us today....we need you!!"

Sincerely,

Kym Vieira
Deputy Director, Administrative Services
Los Angeles County Probation Department
